

Where I do not support the request completely it has merit. I would suppose this action with one change. Afford Technicians access to a portion of the HF spectrum without a code requirement for their experimentation and exploration of the HF bands. This will enable those new to the HF bands to learn how these bands function before being granted full access. Thank you